

The Authentic Leader Workshop

*What really matters to you? What do you want to create while you're here?
How can you most effectively join with others to bring your vision into reality?*

Delve into these questions and more when you attend Anjali Leadership's Authentic Leader Workshop in Toronto April 7-9, 2010 and in Vancouver May 17-19, 2010.

In order to thrive, organizations are being called to develop extraordinary leadership. Extraordinary leaders create a return on investment of 2 to 4 times that of their average performing colleagues, and score in the top 10% in the leadership dimensions of Achieving, Relating, Systems Awareness, Authenticity and Self-Awareness. Where do you stand and what is empowering you or holding you back?

Find out when you join Shahmeen Sadiq, Prism Award winner and founder of Anjali Leadership, for The Authentic Leader Workshop – a powerful 3-day experience created by The Leadership Circle™.

Before the workshop, you will complete The Leadership Circle Profile 360 degree feedback instrument. The TLCP shows you how you are performing in 18 leadership competencies, and highlights the behaviours that are getting in your way. You will receive your results and unpack them in the workshop.

In the process, you will:

- Study your inner 'operating system' that links automatic thinking with leadership behaviour
- 'Catch yourself in the act' through interactive, provocative and fun experiences
- Gain significant insight into the underpinnings of your own leadership
- Increase leverage for transformative change through learning the skill and practice of authentic and courageous conversation
- Enable yourself to lead with greater passion, compassion, courage and effectiveness
- Walk away with a plan for improving your performance and that of your team

Leadership skills and habits do not blossom overnight; they need to be supported and nourished with tried and true programs that enable leaders to assimilate what they need over time. That is why we have included 2 hours of follow-on individual leadership development coaching for each participant in The Authentic Leader Workshop.

You will benefit from this workshop if you are:

- A leader who understands that the organizational culture must change in order to thrive and is committed to evolving your own leadership in support of this
- A human resource, organizational development or coaching professional who supports leaders
- An individual seeking to enhance your leadership capabilities

"This workshop has changed more about the way I approach leadership in a more substantial way than anything I have experienced in 20 years of leadership training." P. King, Former CIO and Foundation Executive, Seattle, Washington

"Shahmeen has been doing transformative work with leaders and their teams across Canada for many years. Her energy is contagious, her insight transformative, and her unique spark of humanity and courage fills her workshops with a rare combination of realism and proven hope of a different, more powerful way of moving forward. If you're looking for a way of creating more of what you and your organization want – with less effort and greater alignment – Shahmeen and The Authentic Leader Workshop are the right match for you." D. Holden, President, Daniel Holden & Associates
